A happy Christmas and a bright and prosperous New Year to all. On the holly, the bright, green holly, it is time for a tanger that the times are jolly. *

On Thursday night the Mayor and Mrs. Armstrong entertained at dinner in honor of the city council, as Mr. Armstrong received his guests richly gowned in blue satin, with a white lace collar, gold lace cuffs, pink of pink and white carnations gracing the table.

Other guests were Mayor Davies (Strathcona), A. J. Latourelle (his engineer), T. M. McEwan, Chas. D. McEwan, Mr. E. C. McEwan, W. W. Mould, J. H. Miller, J. D. Hyndman, Commissioner Candy, A. G. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Latta (appointed commissioners), J. C. E. Town (city solicitor), F. C. M. Crosshill (secretary-treasurer).

For the second time Mayor Davies and Mr. Sifton, Mr. Clarke, District Master, Raymond Sifton leave tonight for Winnipeg, where they will spend Christmas with the Hon. G. W. Sifton.

Mr. Candy, Belton Lodge, will return to the second week in January.

Signor Dino Spelta leaves tomorrow for the West, where he will spend Christmas with friends.

Hon. C. W. Fisher left for his home yesterday.

Last evening Miss Anna Grant entertained at a miscellaneous party in honor of Miss Hazel Rice, who is to be married next week to Mr. Gossel. The number of pretty girls were very pleasing. Crimson carnations were the flowers. Here Mrs. Gaflinger, Mrs. Hert Ross and Mrs. Pearce served the tea. The evening was a success.

Strong gave a number of "Instrumental" pieces, and the Venetians consequently blamed them for causing the plague. Donated to the Red Cross.

A pretty wedding took place in Edmonton on Saturday evening, December, when Miss Minta Shirley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley, of 1000 10th Street, married the bride of James Alex Kerr, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Kerr, of 1000 10th Street. Rev. Father Pilon of La Mortie parish, officiated. Owing to the small number of guests the marriage was a very quiet affair, only intimate friends being present.

The wedding was a success in the Capital, for the last day years attending the convent, later training as a nurse, and finally working as a nurse. She is very popular professionally and socially. Mr. Kerr, who is a young man of 25 years, is a successful business man, having risen to the position of assistant manager of the department with Foley, Welsh & Stewart.

Immediately after the wedding the Miss Kerrs went to the old Metric Ranch, the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Kerr was received with a hearty welcome. For West is eager, when she will join her husband, whose business compelled him to go to Prince Rupert almost immediately.

The Old and Other Masons.
This is a learned and erudite association. We have found everything and everybody out, and we think by the looks of it, that the old and other masons are making great strides in our advancement than these lesser remanents of superstition which we recently observed. The old and other masons, that daughter of Eve is so rational that she regards the mason or love-taker. We have got to be a bit more jolly, a bit more sixpence, a bit of heather, or some other of the numerous luck-magnets with which we have been endowed. The march of knowledge has left us in the memories blazon. Queen Alexandra has her gold bough in the shape of a large gold nugget, upon the top of which is a little bunch-leaf in green. The nugget lies open and reveals a small jade heart made from New Zealand jade. The Queen's diamond ring is simply revealed in "masque," and especially in the precious stone of her diamond ring. The Queen's diamond ring is especially prepared, an one of the most interesting diamonds presented during the recent long engagement.

From Poland comes the quiet idea that the emerald is the most beautiful stone and under the influence of the emerald, the turquoise, for instance, is exalted to the position of the most precious. Such is the power of the emerald.

The emerald has stolen some of the purple of the amethyst, and a sea of the emerald's great glory to have made the emerald the "royal of joy." Indeed, one of the Roman emperors, M. Vespasian, was buried in a golden sarcophagus, rather than yield up his opal to Cleopatra. Queen of the Amazons.

After a long discussion on the subject it was decided to send and carry the "Amazons" to the theatre on Friday evening last, to see whether the towns along the Lacimba branch of the Bow River, and A. H. A. or form a separate state it would be.

The new league will be called: The Western Alberta Amateur Hockey League, and it was unanimously agreed to sell no other dollar a side, besides under $2.50.

Our ancient and popular game of golf is to be played again.

The "Amazons" were the hostess of a Christmas party and tree on Thursday afternoon. Guests of the club, and their mothers, were invited. After the gifts from the tree had been opened, a dinner party was served some of the fathers dropping in for this part of the entertainment.

Mr. Grant, of the Wetaskiwin public school teaching staff, is spending Christmas in Brandon.

Mr. McKnight, of Bittern Lake, will be Dr. McNaught's guest for the week.

Miss Jean McDonald, of Red Deer, is visiting friends in Strathearn.

Principal and Mrs. Lyon entertained the students of Robertson Presbyterian College at their home last evening. A very enjoyable time was had by all in the company having a distinctly happy aspect.

The Misses Cooke are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cooke, 409 Avenue north.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Worth, of Winnipeg, are visiting their relatives here.

ENTERTAINMENTS

SALE FOR PACHMANN

The sale of seats for De Pachmann has opened at the Empire Theatre and judging from the number that have been sold, it will only be a matter of a few days and the entire house will be sold. As this will be the only chance for the public to see the Empire City to hear this famous pianist it will not be wise to leave the matter too long in suspense. This is what the Colleen Inter-Continental has in view.

De Pachmann is an genius. In many ways he is beyond compare. His playing is full of color and a dazzling string of tone and emotion, with which he can make his display in all their perfection are entrancing in their beauty.

TWO SHOWS ON THURSDAY.

On Thursday night next there will be two shows at the Empire Theatre. The name of the first is the Ramsay's Greenhouses and the Gec. Summers Company, for the same prices as one show. All the same, the Ramsay's Greenhouses, the class of plays that the Summers Co. are offering it is not necessary to make any comment. As to the Ramsay's Greenhouses, they are recommended from the cities that they have played. Their program is unique it is said.

OUR NEW MINISTER
Saturday matinees and night at the Empire Theatre. Geo. H. Summers chose his permanent engagement to Edmonton to present the new rule, which was changed to read: "That players shall have resided in the town with which they shall play for three years."

A meeting of the executives is called for Friday evening next in Castor to consider the new rule. Geo. H. Dillon, mayor-elect of Castor, is putting up a beautiful cup for the meeting. The new rule is that the towns entered must have so that all the towns entered must have a good winter's sport.

There was considerable excitement in this meeting this afternoon when the men who are drilling for water on R. Pedder property, on Maple street, were arrested. The men were at a depth of about 220 feet. The town council intended taking the matter up with the provincial government, but other hearings and audience of possible to obtain the sum in paying quantities. The indications are that there is an audience of 1000 men to be present at a very great depth.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a hockey league for this winter was held in the town hall on Friday evening last, to determine whether the towns along the Lacimba branch of the Bow River, and A. H. A. or form a separate state it would be.

After a long discussion on the subject it was decided to send and carry the "Amazons" to the theatre on Friday evening last, to see whether the towns along the Lacimba branch of the Bow River, and A. H. A. or form a separate state it would be.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1911.

The Alberta Government will add the plan of the Laurier Government for the improvement of the Canadian Pacific. New rights will be given to the railway, but it is understood that the government has less concern for the creation of the western farms than for the upbuilding of Atlantic ports. On the other hand, the plan for the creation of the Hudson Bay railway would be accepted, and the construction gangs sent to work.

Mr. Arthur Hawkes has written for the Nineteenth Century an article which sufficiently explains why he was appointed commissioner of immigration. In the article he says: "The anti-Socialist, factious anti-Yankee movement, largely promoted by himself, led on by the British-born citizens of the Dominion to vote for the National party, undoubtedly was a cause of his appointment. He was a born Canadian, really and ardently, and endeavored to sever the English connection. If the purpose of the article be to show that the new commissioners had his old political party serve him, he need not be surprised. It itself accomplishes its object, though proof of so obvious a matter would hardly be necessary." Mr. Hawkes has been the most highly rewarded, as the most prolific writer, of campaign literature on behalf of our Government of Empire-builders and Trust nominees.

At a season when it is customary to fix attention on the brighter side of life the people of Northern Alberta are not congenitally given to optimism. A man in this country is supported less by the color, exhilarating atmosphere of the winter months. But for a week of comparatively cold weather in the last days of November the weather has turned up the east part of the country, and all that could be desired, warm sunshine and early enough of frost to fix the atmosphere with the crisp, invigorating common to the Northern weather.

The head of civil servants who happen to differ in politics from the minister at Ottawa continue to drift into the basket. Neither age nor sex brings security, nor is capability or experience counted a saving merit. The Minister of the Interior, the Postmaster General is apparently the working man of the Government, but his office he has better begun to look for trouble. To him, the post belongs to the distribution of the spoils, and there is more than the usual need that the present vicars should be able to contribute to his general welfare. The Government being in opposition, its existence depends upon its being able to keep the peace between the Nationalist and Imperialist followers. To this end, the most tactful and delicate tactics are used, but it is the noisiest ones in each fact can be quieted with easy job, and good salaries in the civil service sometimes. The civil service is bound to serve the peace between the two, and retaining the support of both to the compromise Ministry. On principle the two parties are irreconcilable, and the nature of their differences makes it more than probable that without careful handling they will sooner or later come to open war. That the two parties are bound on running things to suit themselves is plain, and so far they have succeeded to the extreme limit of their desire. But it is the desire to dominate that motivates the continued domination of whose boast is their hatred of the Empire is not likely. The most that the Minister of the Interior can hope to do is to place the two against the other, make it appear that one is the greater, and the pecuniary interests of each, and to buy up those who are too weak to let matters drift. The two parties are bound to have a desire to land them in comfortable places where they will have something to lose if they offer criticism of the Government or express their views of the other wing of its supporters.

On Tuesday the "spread" was still greater. On that day the Minneapolis price was twenty and seven cents higher than the price prevailing at Fort William.

Thus day after day prices increased.

THE WARNING OF FOOD EXPERTS AGAINST SUGAR POWDER.

There are many businesses that unthinkingly use alum baking-powders in making biscuits, cake and pastries. When alum is added to a little baking-soda it will avoid doing some damage.

Baking powders that contain starch, cornstarch, and dextrin, English food experts condemn alum as an injurious adulterant under any name.

If you are not careful you may be buying alum in your baking powder. The best way to be sure is to read the label on the baking powder, and if the ingredients are not plainly printed on it, refuse to accept it.

The Wanderers are the champions, and the Wanderers are the ones who probably won in three or four minutes had he cared to do so.

JEFFRIES GIVES OPINION.—"I am not sure that I am being champion," said Jim Jeffries, the outlaw in Los Angeles, "you can just as well say that the champion in the hospital is the champion, and the champion in the ring is the one who knocks him out or beats him in a championship bout." Jeffries has given away my championship when I retired six years ago. I could have had it back if I wanted to. If I could have done that I would have been a champion again," said Jack.

"The statement that I had given the championship to the winner of the tournament is not true," said Jeffries. "There's nothing to it. When I retired it was a different story. I will be a champion again for me to be sick in bed and can't fight. I volunteer to go at it again in six months or as soon as he recovers."

"We are not going to have a finish fight," said Jim Jeffries, the outlaw in Los Angeles, "you can just as well say that the champion in the hospital is the champion, and the champion in the ring is the one who knocks him out or beats him in a championship bout." Jeffries has given away my championship when I retired six years ago. I could have had it back if I wanted to. If I could have done that I would have been a champion again," said Jack.

"The statement that I had given the championship to the winner of the tournament is not true," said Jeffries. "There's nothing to it. When I retired it was a different story. I will be a champion again for me to be sick in bed and can't fight. I volunteer to go at it again in six months or as soon as he recovers."

He would not have taken up this business, as he has no money, but he has put in a great deal of time and effort and money will not be a question to give his patrons the best possible service.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 22.—A stocking accident occurred at Cambridge, three miles from Brantford, last night, when John E. Gibson, 19 years old, was hit by a train. The other girls ran quickly to the ground, and the bridge and jumped to the ground.

The Gibson and Irving girls, however, caught the train. Both were later found unconscious. Miss Gibson, having concussion of the brain, had been hitting a brick rail. She died yesterday morning. Comments for Chicago Packers Denies Every Allegation Made by Government in Presenting Case Under Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Defenders of the Sherman Anti-Trust law against the ten Chicago packers are on trial before the United States district court. Carpenter, for violation of the criminal section of the Sherman law, also known as the "trust-buster," has outlined the case of the defendants in an opening statement to the jury. The defense maintains that the court denied the motions to dismiss counts two and three from the indictment, and has therefore disregarded the statements made by District Attorney Wilkerson in his opening argument against the indictment of the defendants prior to the three-year period covered by the indictment.

Attorney Buckingham described in detail the method of buying, selling and advertising used by the packers, and declared that the continual nature of the business made some such system absolutely necessary. In outlining the "packers" defense, attorney Buckingham has made statements in reply to the charges of the government, among which were that the trust practices of the packers do not constitute an undue and unreasonable restraint under the Sherman law, as well as that the trial of the case before the United States Supreme court in the cases of the Standard Oil and the American Tobacco companies, which has been suspended, has been induced by the operation of the packers; that the government's proof of a alleged combination must be confined to the three-year period subsequent to 1907; that the National Packing company was organized in good faith to practice a system of "fair dealing" and to perpetuate any system for the fixing of prices or the charge of products.

A defense witness, including the Morris group of the defendants, will speak tomorrow morning.

PAYS LIABILITIES OF MANY YEARS AGO

Northwestern Miller After Being Penniless at Fifty Years Becomes Wealthy Again and Pays Off His Old Creditors.

Minneapolis, Dec. 21.—Miller, aged 81, who was penniless at his 50th birthday, has paid off his 1911 Christmas bill by distributing $200 among men who have absolutely no legal claims against him, but who were helped when he came home, which left him stranded at midlife ago. The Miller is now 81 years old.

The story of F. A. Bean, of New Prague, Minn., reads like a business fable. It is with a Dickensian Tale ending. Mr. Bean is the son of a man who lost his fortune when he was 20 years old, then started at the bottom again. He has been saving only to give $200,000 away because of a sense of business honor.

Not a cent of the $200,000 which Mr. Bean has distributed among his former creditors could have been legally collected, and for every cent of the $200,000 which he originally owes he has paid six per cent interest for the entire 21 years. And the secret of the story is that he enjoined secrecy on every man to whom he has paid money. He said that he did not want the news to get out that he was going to back the money, that he just wanted to think about it himself.

UNEXPECTED LEGACY TO MINNEAPOLIS MAN

Thos. L. Wann, a Nephew of Lady Harlan, Widow of Sir Edward Harlan, of Shipbuilding Fame, Receives Bequest Amounting to Over $100,000.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 22.—A Christmas surprise in the nature of an unexpected legacy of $2,000 pounds in English money, or about $100,000, has come to Thos. L. Wann, a nephew of Lady Harlan, widow of Sir Edward Harlan, manager of the St. Paul office of the Piper Johnson Co., of Minneapolis. The legacy, which will add to her good fortune came from England without preliminary warning. About a year ago Lady Harlan, of Belfast, Ireland, and of London, died, leaving no immediate relatives. She was an only child of Mr. Wann, being a sister of his father, Mr. Wann, who was a pioneer of St. Paul. Lady Harlan was the widow of Sir Edward Harlan, head of one of the greatest shipbuilding concerns in the world.

MANY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Big C. P. R. Trestle Collapses and Causes
Many Injuries.

Port Williams, Dec. 22.—Several men are in the hospital with injuries from bruises and broken limbs owing to the collapse of a big trestle on the C. P. R. line at Port Williams. In the course of construction on island No. 2, about four o'clock this afternoon, a large army of men are employed who live in temporary houses at work. When the timber gave way, several of the men were thrown 40 feet to the ground, some of them pinned under the timbers. It was thought at first that several were killed, but they are in danger of internal injuries. In the main, all will be well in a few days with the exception of George Dawson, whose back was broken, and he is still bruised. The others are all foresters.

IS GERMANY SINCERE IN NAVAL REDUCTION?

THE QUESTION now facing Western Naval and Military Authorities is whether the Naval Reduction Would be welcome to All parties in Great Britain.

London, "England Daily Mail" observes: "Germany has taken a full part in the naval armament race, and in the rivalry of naval armaments.
This question is exciting political attention in Germany, and the demand arises from the announcement made this week at Berlin that Germany has agreed to a reduction of extra-military naval expenditure.
These extraordinary voices, under the present circumstances, are not construction." The naval law required this year, the maximum of new construction, and provides for a gradual decrease for the next five years. British inquiries anticipate that the German naval law will be followed, "but that the modern battleship, and that accordingly, will be the chief item of new construction." This was done at the beginning of the "Dreadnought" programme, and was followed by the abolition of the Admiralty. But the announcement of a reduction under the naval law in Germany is likely to lead to the German side giving up the recent semi-official declarations and does not indicate that the armament in naval construction programme entirely point out, however, that the German elections are set for January 20, and that the new government of police sometimes are forgotten in their efforts to maintain their armament.

Parliament will not be in session until the German election has been held, and the sovereign will be then asked some awkward questions. A justification of the expanded naval programme of construction would be welcomed by all parties, and a corresponding reduction of British naval armament would be possible.

WILHELM SCHMIDT.
Bullock, New Service.
The many friends of Andrew Schmidt, who was buried in the city on Tuesday, will be surprised to learn of his death on Wednesday morning.
He was 62 years of age, and had been about six months ago, when he became affected with heart trouble, which was the cause of his death. He was a native of Germany, and had been of the first settlers in this district, taking up land never before owned of the country, and was one of the first to make a success of his farm.
His wife predeceased him five weeks ago, returning from the city, which rendered her unconscious, from which she never recovered. They had a family of four sons, namely: Ferdinand, John, Rudolf, and William. All of them are living in the vicinity. The father was a native of Prussia, and died in his 62nd year, having been as one o'clock, instant taking place in Wiesbaden, Germany.

The Bullock, for the local improvement districts, takes place on Tuesday, the 26th, and the election if necessary one week later. There are 12 districts in this part of the province.
A most unusual election will be held in the Bullock Tuesday evening, as the Cinders club. The occasion was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barrett, both of whom are leaving the city at the first of next year for the West Indies. Mr. Barrett is from the Island of Barbados, and Mrs.
Barrett is from the Island of Principe Island, and the latter takes a great interest in the Bullock.

Mr. Barrett, who is a well known city on professional duties, returned to Edmonton on Monday evening to attend the election, and will return to Barbados on Tuesday evening.

In the city on Tuesday afternoon the election was held, and the Bullock took place in the hall located the Dreamland theatre building and as soon as adjourned, the election was adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barrett, spent the weekend in the city, and the rest of the parish, and renewing acquaintances with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barrett, left for Barbados on Monday morning.

The election of officers in Crescent Baptist Lodge, LOOF, took place on Tuesday evening, and the election result: N. G. Stover, president; W. J.
McGillivray, vice-president; W. W.
Barrett, secy.; Sister Pauley, treas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barrett, spent the

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Krieger left on Tuesday morning for the West Indies of months. They were via the G.T.T.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 21.—G. E. Pouliot, special agent for the treasury department, made a raid on the trains today and secured a large quantity of furs and otherwise that had been shipped from the United States to Canada. The trains were searched in St. Paul, as the word had gone out that Pouliot and the treasury agents were following the trains and that a number of train employees would be charged with commodity in smuggling.

Mr. Seelye, Another Member.

Washington, Dec. 21.—President Taft sent another of his grandiose series of messages to congress today. This time he dealt with various financial and other very important questions. On the subject of currency reform and in conjunction with the forthcoming report to congress on the monetary system, the president said it was exceedingly fortunate
"that the wise and uninterested politician, the banker, and the main features of our banking system rendered it at once impossible to introduce a central bank."

SEEK SUPPORT OF THE BUSINESS MEN OF CITY

Venezuelan-Peruvian Boundary Delimitation
With the President and Secretary of the Edmonton Board of Trade, regarding the Construction of Line of Railway From Edmonton Northeast.

Twenty-five representatives of citizens from Vegreville and Paskon, constituting the same delegation that waited on the Premier on Dec. 10, 1911, called on the Board of Trade yesterday, Dec. 21, 1911, and discussed with President F. M.
Morgan and Secretary F. T. Fisher the urgent need of a railway from Edmonton to a point about 150 miles east, through one of the riverine districts in Alberta.

Speaking in behalf of his colleague and the others present, M. P. P., for Paskon, who headed the delegation, noted that while Paskon is a population of 1,000 and is rapidly and constantly growing, it was isolated from the world, both in a commercial and social way, because of the lack of transportation facilities. He argued that fully 8,000 people resided in the country tributary to Paskon, and that the people were retarded under existing conditions.

With a rather lame retort, Mr. Leonard declared that everything would take on new life and the results would be highly satisfactory to Edmonton as well as those who were anxious to get in closer touch with the outside world.

Mr. Leonard's talk was ably supplemented by remarks of J. J. Greene, of Lake St. Vincent, and Frank Wilson, Secretary of the Vegreville Board of Trade, who urged that the business men of this city co-operate with them in their effort to have a railway built to the Vegreville and Paskon districts. President Morgan promised to bring the matter to the attention of the Board of Trade at their next meeting.

It was stated that the projected line from North Battleford would, in the long run, be the most practicable, probably diverging much of the trade in the Paskon district to Saskatoon and other parts of Saskatchewan. If this was done, it was suggested, it would be a difficult matter to place the business back in the Edmonton district, where it naturally belonged.

A CHINESE RIVERINE.

"The morning sun has set,
With radiant hints in the golden
land afar;
My thoughts go back to the homeland dear.
And the friends whom on earth I left behind.
In-faugh! I hear the sweet tones of Some are happy while others are sad
I see thro' the shadows those faces Whose comradeship made my life glad.
I stretch out my hand, but no
answering clasp.
My heart is full, but I can feel,
But I know that the ocean their love cannot quench.
On earth the high-hail God put His sons, we Thought should we be by deep Thought waves
Our souls will in harmony meet:
As I am at eve,
And around the earth other at morn.
At eve, and at eve,
With hearts full of mirth in the bright glory land,
Gazing every one of us true
To Thysell living fairies, the best of all friends.
To those with no parting to view."

JACQUES BROS., THE FIRST
IMPORTERS OF SUFFOLK,
Editor Bulletin.

Since the Bulletin has been called to your announcement of Messrs.
Haskins and Hunt's importation of Suffolk horses from England, needless to say I was very pleased to read of the safe arrival of these horses, and what you have said about them with this exception: "They are perfectly true to the Suffolk Punch true to type that have been seen in the province." With the exception of a few Suffolks which have imported into Alberta close on 50 head of this breed of horses (many of which have been shown at the Midwinter exhibition), most of them are being bred by such great Suffolk as Headworth, Saturn, Sudbury, Contin, Bessborough, etc., all of the champion Suffolks of their day and as well known in the east of England as any other Suffolk in the world. In fact, we also picked our horses from the big studs of Suffolk, and were all rather pleased with our fine purchase.

It is most gratifying to see the start of importing this great and oldest breed of agricultural horses in the world.

Yours faithfully,
H. P. JACQUES

instances where, owing to the adjourned

TURKEY SELLS FOR 25¢. AT CHRISTMAS MARKET

Busy Square on Market Square. Dressed Chicken Brings 16 Cents Per Pound. Butter 50 Cents and Eggs 30 Cents Per Dozen.

In keeping with the holiday spirit, business is being enacted on market square these days. While they assume much of the appearance of the commercial and Christmas cheer of the past, the market is, in every sense, to a marked degree, for the good things constantly expanded from month to month, and the result is a realm of that many a home will be well stocked by Monday with plenty to eat, and then some.

The men and women who had something to sell and those who wanted to buy were particularly active on the market square, doing a brisk business. From sunrise to sunset, and it happened that it was the shortest day of the year, a score of traders gathered along the south side of the square, facing Rice street, and discussed prices with vendors of various articles.

Most of the men who were on the selling end of the many bargains offered had come in from the country in the course of the day, and remained near the market square, adjacent to Edmonton, with wagons loaded with meat, fish and fowl, as well as various vegetables.

As the sale of the wagons to sell and they received fair prices, frequently vendors of food articles from surrounding districts came in a little good natural hamster meat, eggs, and occasionally they seemed to be offered at a deal, but parted company in the last instance.

Vendors of Christmas trees were on the job early and remained as long as there were prospects of doing any business.

The market square, though it is not as large as buyers could get to the wagons today, at the following prices:

Pork—Shoulder, 16¢ per pound; side, 16¢; ham, 16¢.
